

Incentives

Public, peer and court recognition
 Extended curfew
 Job shadowing
 Mentoring
 Decrease court appearances
 Reduce supervision
 Reduce UA testing
 Move to next phase in program
 Peer mentor to new drug court participant
 Counsel youth on post education/career
 Reduce counseling
 Move in treatment
 Increase input into treatment plan
 Apprenticeship in field of interest
 Choice of community service to build community involvement
 Credit toward any fines
 Leadership role in program
 Leave court early
 Cap & gown graduation
 Terminate probation
 Co-facilitate group
 Reduce community service hours
 Restore driving privileges
 Substitute court appearance for family activity
 Praise published in local newspaper
 Recommendation letters from team members for jobs
 Provide transportation
 Life skills training
 Allow to participate in extra-curricula activities
 Invite school staff to court for recognition of youth
 Parent night out with babysitting
 Display of essays, pictures, etc.
 Help pursue goals
 Whole team in court for special occasions
 Provide skill development/training
 Provide tools of a trade
 Academic recognition
 Decrease family counseling
 Credit towards treatment costs & fines

School supplies
 Meal coupons
 Pizza party
 Certificate of Achievement
 Tickets for sporting events, movies, water park, amusement park, etc.
 Chips or tokens to trade for fast food coupons, movies, CD's
 Make-over, haircut, manicure, pedicure
 Family activity - dinner out, amusement park, water park, bowling, etc.
 T-Shirt
 Breakfast or lunch with Governor, Lt. Governor, Mayor, Judge, whole team
 Tour of local college
 Fishing, canoeing, hiking with a team member
 Book, music, clothe gift certificates
 Letter from school, Judge, Mayor, Governor, Lt. Governor, Police Chief
 Lessons for swimming, gymnastics, dancing, singing, acting, art, skiing, horseback riding, whitewater rafting
 Internet access
 Cash rewards
 Family portrait
 Family scrapbook
 Limo ride
 Magazine subscription
 YMCA membership
 Pay for GED testing
 Candy
 Pay for drivers education
 Bonds
 Grocery coupons
 Gas certificate
 Phone cards

Keep in mind that this list is just a jumping off point. Incentives should be individualized, goal-oriented, and graduated.*

Sanctions

Reduce curfew
Ban activities
House arrest
Detention
Community service
Restrict driving privileges
Increase court appearances
Have curfew checks
Increase UA's
Residential treatment
Saturday school
Truancy seminar
Restrict special school events
Remove from home
Increase supervision
Contempt hearing
Issue warrant
Re-assess participant
Loss of job, driver's license
Extend probation
Fines
Write essay
No contact order
Apology
Increase homework
Restrict peer association
Work crew
No dismissal of charges
Restitution
Electronic monitoring
Termination
Repeat phase
Alternative school
Behavior contract
Verbal reprimand
Pay for screens
Keep a time journal
Remove personal privileges, cell phones, computer time, stereo, TV, etc.
Dusk-Dawn curfew
Police visit
Prison tour

Expand treatment plan
Community service at landfill, Habitat for Humanity
Sit in on adult sentencing
Reassessment
Observing in the ER
Expulsion from program
Delay advancement into next phase
Structured study time
Join a club/organization
Extra chores
Referral to anger management
Homework verification
Pay for missed appointments
Loss of job
SRO supervision
P.O. accompaniment
Restorative justice
Sell clients personal property for damages
Increase probation
Increase screening

Keep in mind that this list is just a jumping off point. Sanctions should be individualized, goal-oriented, and graduated.*